8. Award Ceremony

The award ceremony will take place immediately after the end of the races, on the podium inside the track. Riders involved must present themselves in race clothing.

9. Riders' Area

Riders' area is located outside the track, in the field near the grandstand. The organization will not provide bike storage before, during and after the competition. Each team is considered responsible of their own equipment during his stay.

10. Antidoping control

Anti-doping tests will take place in specific rooms located at the permanence, according to the UCI anti-doping Regulations and to the laws provided by Italian legislation.

11. Special Madison regulation

The UCI Class 1 Madison Final Classification will be composed with the points gained in the SGR Madison and SGR Flying Lap during the three days of races.

The points are assigned as specificized below:

Madison: 20-12-10-8-6-4

Flying Lap: 10-6-5-4-3-2

Madison Final: All sprints' points (and 20 points for laps gained or lost) will go directly to the UCI class 1 final Madison classification.

12. Side Events

A side event open to the "Giovanissimi" category is scheduled on July 6th.

13. Press

Photographers and journalists are allowed in the infield zone of the track only with the organization media accreditations. Media accreditation can be collected during the opening hours of the accreditation center. The press room is located under the stands, accessible exclusively for accredited journalists in the scheduled opening time. The press accreditation is open until June 30th via mail to 6giornidellerose@gmail.com.

14. Program

The organization wants to clarify that every day at 5 pm, they will communicate the confirmation of the next day's program or any changes, considering the weather forecast, any qualification foreseen for the races and particular situations to be evaluated.

Race program follows.

15. Concluding remarks

Thank you for reading this technical guide carefully. Please note that for all unspecified technical questions, the UCI regulations apply. Italian law applies in all matters and circumstances.
